“Coaching has an impact on an organization’s financial performance; according to an ICF and HCI study, 60% of respondents from organizations with strong coaching cultures report their revenue to be above average, compared to their peer group. When it comes to building your personal brand, a coach can be a powerful resource who can help you get out of your own way, stand out, and take action to achieve the things that are truly important to you. Simply put, a coach will help you stoke your success. How much is that worth to you?”

Proven Results

The Mastering Leadership Program has been successfully implemented as a corporate in-house offering and as an independent program. Success is benchmarked and measured via three methods – program participant surveys, management feedback, and individual session summary forms. Program results continue to validate the investment:

- CONFIDENCE: 100% of participants feel they now handle conflict confidently up from 70% at start of the program.
- CROSS-BOUNDARY COLLABORATION: A 22% increase in participants who strongly agree that they have a good working relationship with peers outside their immediate organization.
- IMPACT & INFLUENCE: “Ability to influence other groups” increased from baseline 60% to 93% at program completion.

The professionals participating in Mastering Leadership come from a diversity of organizations and background. Their goals range from moving up, finding passion and meaning, or building courage to take the next career step. Participant feedback has been overwhelmingly positive:

“Mastering Leadership had a powerful effect on my improvement as a leader and my life in general by helping me see and break through self-set limitations. I found the combination of group classroom sessions and personal coaching highly effective. The instructors and coaches are very knowledgeable and skilled. I highly recommend this course to anyone who feels stuck or plateaued in their career or life.”
